Article – 2.4

The UG/PG students of each of the institutes can take courses or do project work/dissertation work in the other institute (host institute). The credits earned by the students in the host institute will be transferred to the home/ parent institute and will be considered for the purpose of grading by mapping to the courses and credits as per the curriculum of the home/ parent institute. Project guidance and its continuous evaluation will be done by the faculty member (external guide) at the host institute. One faculty member (internal guide) at the home institute will also be assigned to each of such projects. The dissertation/project report will be submitted to the home institute through the internal guide for final evaluation. Grading of the projects/dissertations will be done, based on continuous and final evaluation as per the grading procedure of the home institute. The students have to pay the requisite semester fees of the other institute (host institute) as well.

Article – 2.5

NLU Tripura and NITA will organize National/ International Conferences/ Seminars/ Symposia/ workshops jointly in conformity with the rules and regulations of both institutes.

Article – 3.1

In addition, it is envisaged that each activity, in view of the flexibility and effectiveness of implementation that the parties wish to pursue in accordance with the purpose of this MOU will be governed by terms and conditions to be separately negotiated and mutually agreed upon by the parties through the signing of one or more subsidiary agreements.

Article – 3.2

Any clause or article of the MOU may be modified or amended by mutual agreement of NLU Tripura and NITA.

Article-4.0

4.1 In case of joint research projects, the research findings, patents and all other intellectual property rights shall exclusively be owned by NLU Tripura and NITA.

4.2 The expenditure connected with securing and maintaining Intellectual Property Rights shall be shared between the two institutes (NLU Tripura and NITA) proportionally, based on their respective intellectual, material and financial contributions and decided on a case-to-case basis.

Article – 5.0

5.1 This MOU shall be effective for an initial period of five years from the date of signing. Thereafter, this MOU may be extended for further periods of five years or for any other period of time as deemed appropriate by both parties, subject to their mutual consent of any such extension to be made in writing.

5.2 Either party may terminate this MOU by giving a written notice of termination of at least three months in advance citing a valid reason which is mutually agreeable. If agreed by both parties, a third-party negotiator may be entrusted and judge the veracity of the reason/factor/cause cited by the institute.

5.3 In the event of termination of MOU, for whatever reasons, both parties agree to fulfil their respective commitments in respect of the students, research scholars, and faculty involved in the activities which are in vogue during such termination time and MOU will be considered to be in force till completion of such activities.

Article – 6.0

Arbitration

In case of any dispute arising out of this agreement, the heads of the institutes shall endeavour to resolve such controversy or dispute by mutual discussions and in good faith. This MoU between NLU Tripura, and the NITA, is now established by the signatures of the Directors of the two institutes.
